

Justin Wolfe LCPC, CADC, CRC, PCGC- Justin Wolfe is the Director of Clinical Services at Footprints to Recovery in Chicago, IL. Justin completed his Master's in Counseling with a Specialization in Rehabilitation from Adler University, and his addictions training at the College of DuPage. Justin has worked in the behavioral health field for over a decade primarily focusing his work on individuals impacted by the disease of addiction and Co-Occurring Disorders. Justin has focused his career on addressing the unique needs of the population, and has actively collaborated in program development for multiple organizations to develop an evidence-based curriculum. Justin has presented at the ASAM conference on the topic of Utilizing Contingency Management within Addiction Treatment. Justin consistently participates in presentations at schools, universities, and other conferences. In his time outside of the facility, Justin works in private practice serving both adolescents and adults.